“It’s Time” Released By Annapolis Song Stylist

Anthony J. “Tony” Spencer, a native Annapolitan, will release his most compelling CD “It’s Time” at 7 PM on December 6, 2006 at the Metropolitan, 169 West Street, Annapolis, Maryland. This collection of classic R&B and jazz favorites includes memorable songs of Marvin Gaye, Stevie Wonder, Al Jarreau, Dinah Washington, Lou Rawls and many others. Spencer’s robust yet charming style is intricately highlighted with a perfected sampling of all the energies of a professional vocal talent. “It’s Time” is Tony’s introduction to the world of music/entertainment and will captivate all cultures and listening audiences.

“I wanted to feature some of my favorite songs by artists that I truly idolized,” said Spencer. “The thought behind ‘It’s Time’ mirrors the journey that I will take to pursue my singing career,” he added.

The artist is also an accomplished actor, poet, model composer and the founder of Enrapture Records. His career has included appearances with Smokey Robinson & the Miracles, WAR, James Cleveland, Shirley Caesar, BeBe & CeCe Winans and many other artists. The release of “It’s Time” is just the beginning of a successful future for Anthony J. “Tony” Spencer. For event information contact (410) 267-9012 or vgist49@aol.com.
